General Grant Breaks Down

OCEAN GROVE, N. J., August 3.-General Grant was among those who visited the reunion of the army chaplains and members of the Christian and sanitary commissions, who performed volunteer field hospital duty during the war. The reunion ends to-morrow night, having been largely attended. General Grant drove down yesterday afternoon with Fred Grant and R. K. Oglesby, Republican candidate for governor of Illinois. The General was enthusiastically received by the gathering of 5,000 people, in-cluding many richly dressed ladies.

Amid cheers and waving of hand-kerchiefs, Rev. A. J. Palmer of the Park Avenue church, New York, who was once sentenced to be hanged as a spy, and lived to hear his own funeral sermon, welcomed Grant, on behalf of the association, and his allu-sions to the recent troubles of the expresident called forth from the latter the following response:
"I remember," said the general, with ward with his crutch and cane, "the grand work of the Christian and santary commission, and how they helped the suffering and dying every where. They wrote letters and for warded dying mementoes to loved ones at home, under my own eyes, and they nursed souls as well as bodies. MESSTS, SHABURY & JOHNSON, Gentlemen; - Like most of my profession, I am cautious about pinning my faith to any new medicine or curative agent. But your BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER has broken through the barriers and won its way to my good opinion. My attention was first called to it some eight months ago by a patient of mine Although I was well acquainted with the superior excellence of your other plaster and antiseptic dressing, made especially for the profession, the Benson's concern: The undersigned hereto gives notice of his appointment as assignee of the estate of McCurtle and Holt, insolvent debtors of Astoria, Clatsop County, Oregon. BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER was comparatively new to me. I had heard, however, of its merits as a remedy, in cases of Lame Back, Local Rheumatism, Neuralgia. Congestion of the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs. Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver and the like affections, and have since begun to experiment with it personally. I find BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER an exceptionally cleanly plaster to use, and rapid in its action-

Many tests of its qualities, made in my own family and among my patients have convinced me that there is no single article so valuable for popular use, nor so helpful in the diseases I have named. Should you desire to do so, you may use my name to that effect. Very truly yours. H. H. KANE, A. M., M. D. The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut
